

USACE TRIBAL NATIONS COMMUNITY OF PRACTICE CHARTER

OBJECTIVES:

The Tribal Nations CoP brings together all US Army Corps of Engineers employees to share information and expertise across the organization with the goal of fulfilling Corps missions and Federal Trust responsibilities at the same time. The Community will develop policy, doctrine, and strategies, as well as participate in national and interagency coalitions and task forces to create an environment that supports a learning organization, all in support of accomplishing this goal.

MEMBERSHIP

Community membership will include all individuals that practice and share an interest in Tribal issues within the Corps of Engineers. Membership includes tribal liaisons, planners, program managers, engineers, project personnel, members of offices of counsel, those in environmental fields, cultural resources managers, and others interested in supporting Tribal issues.

MISSIONS ESSENTIAL TO TRIBAL NATIONS

1. Execute CoP functional responsibilities
2. Develop and provide a capable workforce
3. Build and maintain relationships and alliances at all levels
4. Promote organizational communications
5. Enhance organizational learning

GEORGE REYNOLDS
Community of Practice Leader

CARL A. STROCK
Lieutenant General, USA
Commanding