In 2009, the US Army Corps of Engineers determined the three proposed water supply projects on the Cache la Poudre River basin needed to follow a Common Technical Platform.

Purpose: To ensure the evaluations for impacts were utilizing the same protocols for data collection, modeling, and analysis for common resources...

- Hydrology Modeling
- Geomorphology/Sediment transport
- Aquatics
- Riparian vegetation
- Water Quality, etc.